St. Andrews is steeped in history: its 12th century Cathedral was the largest in Scotland; the Castle, with its unusual 'bottle dungeon' founded in 1200; and The University, Scotland's oldest, originated in the early 1400's, and there are a host of 15th and 16th century Buildings, too numerous to mention. The East Neuk and North East Fife are also rich in historic and beautiful buildings from museums in the quaint fishing villages to the imposing Kellie Castle near Pittenweem and the towering Royal Palace of Falkland, the country residence of the 16th and 17th century Stuart Kings and Queens.

As you will see from the map above St. Andrews is easily accessible from Glasgow and the West and it is less than an hour from Edinburgh. The nearest Railway Station is at Leuchars, ten minutes from the hotel, and a direct service operates from London and the South. Dundee station provides numerous additional options with a greater variety of departures. Edinburgh Airport is less than an hour away and Prestwick and Abbotsinch Airport at Glasgow are around 2 hours drive.

Royal and Ancient Golf Club House

RUSACKS MARINE HOTEL is uniquely situated in the 'home of golf,' overlooking the eighteenth fairway of the Old Course and the Royal and Ancient Golf Club House. There are superb views from the hotel over the famous links, across St. Andrews Bay to Carnoustie on the north side of the Tay.

Rusacks, built in 1885, was, in its day, one of the finest hotels in Scotland and to-day, it has retained all the style and elegance of a former era. The Regency foyer and hall extend a feeling of spaciousness and comfort uncommon in contemporary hotels. The 4 star rating reflects the overall high standard and all rooms have private bathroom, colour television, radio and telephone. Several suites are available, two of which have sitting rooms with magnificent views of the Old Course.

The tastefully decorated restaurant has an international reputation for outstanding food and fine wines and our table d'hote and a la carte menus provide a wide range of imaginative dishes. Emphasis is placed on the freshness of all produce and we go to considerable lengths to purchase the best available quality. Light lunches are provided in the Sun Lounge of the Restaurant and room service is available 24 hours a day.

Private dinner parties can be arranged and we also have a delightful ballroom suitable for wedding receptions, functions, meetings and conferences.

The hotel is centrally heated throughout and a passenger lift serves the bedroom floors. There is a private car park, the access to which is gained from the golf course entrance to the hotel.

Our cosy Cocktail Bar is ideally located near the restaurant and our staff will be happy to prepare your favourite cocktail before dinner. Adjoining the Cocktail
